Dear Chairperson Pourcian:

My late husband, Sidney Harman, and
I purchased our home at 3550 Williamsburg Ln. in 1980. We have lived there continuously and raised four children. I love the neighborhood and also appreciate its proximity to Rock Creek Park which is open to the public.

I see no good reason for a new sports club, which would bring noise and unwanted traffic to a quiet neighborhood. There are adequate sports facilities nearby. The neighborhood has submitted numerous reports to justify our virtually unanimous opposition and I hope their conclusions will be carefully evaluated.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely, Former Congresswoman Jane Harman
