

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
Board of Zoning Adjustment

Application No. 19985 of District Properties.com, as amended, pursuant to 11 DCMR Subtitle X, Chapter 10, for an area variance from the side yard requirements of Subtitle D § 206.2 to construct a new detached principal dwelling unit in the R-2 Zone at premises 419 57th Street, N.E. (Square 5228, Lot 14).<sup>1</sup>

HEARING DATE: May 1, June 5, and July 3, 2019
DECISION DATE: July 3, 2019

DECISION AND ORDER

This self-certified application was submitted on February 4, 2019 on behalf of District Properties.com, the owner of the property that is the subject of the application (the “Applicant”). Following a public hearing, the Board voted to deny the application.

PRELIMINARY MATTERS

Notice of Application and Notice of Hearing. By memoranda and letters dated March 15, 2019, the Office of Zoning provided notice of the application and of the public hearing to the Applicant, the Office of Planning (“OP”), the District Department of Transportation (“DDOT”), the Office of Advisory Neighborhood Commissions, the Councilmember for Ward 7 as well as the Chairman and the four at-large members of the D.C. Council, Advisory Neighborhood Commission (“ANC”) 7C, the ANC in which the subject property is located, Single Member District/ANC 7C05, and the owners of all property within 200 feet of the subject property. Notice was published in the D.C. Register on March 8, 2019. (66 DCR 2729.)

Party Status. The Applicant and ANC 7C were automatically parties in this proceeding. There were no requests for party status.

Applicant’s Case. The Applicant provided evidence and testimony in support of the application.

<sup>1</sup> The application initially requested area variances from requirements for side yard, lot area, and lot width. Because the subject property is an existing nonconforming record lot, only relief from the side yard requirements was needed for the Applicant’s proposal in accordance with Subtitle C § 301.1 (a record lot existing before the effective date of the Zoning Regulations that does not conform with lot dimension and lot area requirements may be considered a conforming lot for the purposes of building permits and uses provided that any building will meet applicable development standards and the non-conformity will not be increased). The application was amended to withdraw the requests for variances from requirements for lot area and lot width.

OP Report. By memorandum dated April 19, 2019, the Office of Planning recommended approval of the application. (Exhibit 30.)

DDOT. By memorandum dated April 19, 2019, the District Department of Transportation indicated no objection to approval of the application. (Exhibit 29.)

ANC Report. By letter dated May 9, 2019, ANC 7C indicated that, at a properly noticed public meeting on the same date with a quorum present, the ANC voted to support the request for a variance from the side yard requirements “contingent to approval by the Northeast Boundary Civic Association.” However, according to the ANC’s letter, the association decided, at its meeting on May 29, 2019, not to support the application “as the construction of the proposed building would be too close to the neighbors on all sides.” The letter stated that therefore ANC 7C “does not support the variance for this applicant.” (Exhibits 47, 55.)

Persons in opposition. The Board received letters and heard testimony from persons in opposition to the application. The persons in opposition objected that the Applicant’s lot was too small for the proposed dwelling, which would crowd neighboring residences, and contended that approval of the application would create adverse impacts with respect to parking and trash.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The property that is the subject of this application is an unimproved parcel located on the east side of 57th Place, N.E. between Dix and Eads Streets, N.E. (Square 1818, Lot 849).
2. The subject property is rectangular, 25 feet wide and 140 feet deep. The lot area is 3,500 square feet.
3. The lot abuts an unimproved public alley, 20 feet wide, along its rear (east) lot line.
4. The Applicant proposed to build a detached dwelling on the subject property. The planned structure would be 19 feet wide, providing side yards of three feet on each side.
5. The subject property and the surrounding area are located in an R-2 zone.
6. Pursuant to Subtitle D § 206.2, two side yards, each at least eight feet in width, are required for a detached building in the R-2 zone. Pursuant to Subtitle D § 206.3, one side yard, at least eight feet wide, is required for a semi-detached building in the R-2 zone.
7. The proposed detached principal dwelling would comply with development standards applicable in the R-2 zone other than the side yard requirements. The building height would be 28 feet and two stories, where a maximum of 40 feet and three stories is permitted. (Subtitle D § 303.1.) The lot occupancy would be 22.5%, where a maximum of 40% is permitted as a matter of right. (Subtitle D § 304.1.) A rear yard of 84 feet would be provided, where a minimum of 20 feet is required. (Subtitle D § 306.2.)

8. The subject property is nonconforming with respect to lot width and lot area. In accordance with Subtitle D § 302.1, the required minimum lot width is 30 feet (for a semi-detached building) or 40 feet (for all other structures), and the required minimum lot area is 3,000 square feet (for a semi-detached building) or 4,000 square feet (for all other structures).
9. The Residential House (R) zones are residential zones, designed to provide for stable, low-to moderate-density residential areas suitable for family life and supporting uses. (Subtitle D § 100.1.) The provisions of the R zones are intended to: (a) provide for the orderly development and use of land and structures in areas predominantly characterized by low-to moderate-density residential development; (b) recognize and reinforce the importance of neighborhood character, walkable neighborhoods, housing affordability, aging in place, preservation of housing stock, improvements to the overall environment, and low- and moderate-density housing to the overall housing mix and health of the city; (c) allow for limited compatible accessory and non-residential uses; (d) allow for the matter-of-right development of existing lots of record; (e) establish minimum lot area and dimensions for the subdivision and creation of new lots of record; and (f) discourage multiple dwelling unit development. (Subtitle D § 100.2.)
10. The R-2 zone is intended to provide for areas predominantly developed with semi-detached houses on moderately sized lots that also contain some detached dwellings. (Subtitle D § 300.5.)
11. The lots abutting the subject property are developed with a semi-detached dwelling, to the south, and a detached dwelling, to the north. The dwelling to the north is located approximately eight feet from the lot line shared with the subject property. The dwelling to the south is set back approximately 13 feet from the lot line shared with the subject property; the setback area contains a driveway that measures approximately 10 feet wide.
12. The surrounding neighborhood has a residential character and is developed primarily with attached and semi-detached dwellings as well as low-density apartment houses.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND OPINION

The Applicant seeks an area variance from the side yard requirements applicable in the R-2 zone under Subtitle D § 206.2 to allow construction of a detached principal dwelling with two side yards of three feet, where a minimum of eight feet on both sides is required. The Board is authorized under § 8 of the Zoning Act to grant variance relief where, “by reason of exceptional narrowness, shallowness, or shape of a specific piece of property at the time of the original adoption of the regulations or by reason of exceptional topographical conditions or other extraordinary or exceptional situation or condition of a specific piece of property,” the strict application of the Zoning Regulations would result in peculiar and exceptional practical difficulties to or exceptional and undue hardship upon the owner of the property, provided that relief can be granted without substantial detriment to the public good and without substantially impairing the intent, purpose, and integrity of the zone plan as embodied in the Zoning Regulations and Map. See 11 DCMR Subtitle X § 1000.1.

For purposes of variance relief, the “extraordinary or exceptional situation” need not inhere in the land itself. Clerics of St. Viator, Inc. v. District of Columbia Bd. of Zoning Adjustment, 320 A.2d 291, 294 (D.C. 1974). Rather, the extraordinary or exceptional conditions that justify a finding of uniqueness can be caused by subsequent events extraneous to the land at issue, provided that the condition uniquely affects a single property. Capitol Hill Restoration Society, Inc. v. District of Columbia Bd. of Zoning Adjustment, 534 A.2d 939, 942 (D.C. 1987); DeAzcarate v. District of Columbia Bd. of Zoning Adjustment, 388 A.2d 1233, 1237 (D.C. 1978) (the extraordinary or exceptional condition that is the basis for a use variance need not be inherent in the land but can be caused by subsequent events extraneous to the land itself.... [The] term was designed to serve as an additional source of authority enabling the Board to temper the strict application of the zoning regulations in appropriate cases....); Monaco v. District of Columbia Bd. of Zoning Adjustment, 407 A.2d 1091, 1097 (D.C. 1979) (for purposes of approval of variance relief, “extraordinary circumstances” need not be limited to physical aspects of the land). The extraordinary or exceptional conditions affecting a property can arise from a confluence of factors; the critical requirement is that the extraordinary condition must affect a single property. Metropole Condominium Ass’n v. District of Columbia Bd. of Zoning Adjustment, 141 A.3d 1079, 1082-1083 (D.C. 2016), citing Gilmartin v. District of Columbia Bd. of Zoning Adjustment, 579 A.2d 1164, 1168 (D.C. 1990).

In this proceeding, the Applicant asserted that the subject property faced an exceptional situation because the adjoining properties were already developed and under separate ownership, thereby precluding their acquisition by the Applicant as a means of forming a larger lot consistent with zoning requirements. The Board does not agree. The subject property is a regular, rectangular parcel that does not exhibit any unusual topographic conditions or other exceptional features. Neither its narrow size nor the separate ownership of adjoining parcels is unusual.

An applicant for area variance relief is required to show that the strict application of the zoning regulations would result in “practical difficulties.” French v. District of Columbia Bd. of Zoning Adjustment, 658 A.2d 1023, 1035 (D.C. 1995), quoting Roumel v. District of Columbia Bd. of Zoning Adjustment, 417 A.2d 405, 408 (D.C. 1980). A showing of practical difficulty requires “[t]he applicant [to] demonstrate that ... compliance with the area restriction would be unnecessarily burdensome....” Metropole Condominium Ass’n v. District of Columbia Bd. of Zoning Adjustment, 141 A.3d 1079, 1084 (D.C. 2016), quoting Fleishman v. District of Columbia Bd. of Zoning Adjustment, 27 A.3d 554, 561-62 (D.C. 2011). In assessing a claim of practical difficulty, proper factors for the Board’s consideration include the added expense and inconvenience to the applicant inherent in alternatives that would not require the requested variance relief. Barbour v. District of Columbia Bd. of Zoning Adjustment, 358 A.2d 326, 327 (D.C. 1976).

The Board finds the Applicant’s claim of practical difficulty unpersuasive. According to the Applicant, the requested variance relief from side yard requirements was necessary because otherwise the property could not be developed with a functional dwelling. However, the Applicant acknowledged that a semi-detached dwelling, 17 feet wide, could be built on the lot in compliance with all development standards applicable in the R-2 zone, including side yard setback. In light of the availability of a viable option that would not require zoning relief, the Board concludes that the Applicant did not demonstrate that compliance with the side yard requirements would be unnecessarily burdensome.

In its report, the Office of Planning also recognized that a semi-detached dwelling could be built as a matter of right but opined that the matter-of-right option was “not as practical because there is no opportunity to attach to a neighboring building,” resulting in creation of an at-risk wall on one side of the property. The Board was not persuaded that the absence of an existing building necessitates a grant of variance relief under the circumstances presented in this application, including the absence of any exceptional circumstances of the property.

The requested variance could be granted without resulting in substantial detriment to the public good. However, approval of the application would cause impairment of the zone plan through the granting of a variance where the property does not exhibit any exceptional situation and the strict application of the Zoning Regulations would not cause any practical difficulty to the owner because another option, consistent with all zoning requirements, is available. Under the circumstances, approval of a variance to allow a detached dwelling, not meeting side yard requirements, would not be consistent with the purposes of the Residential House zones to provide for the orderly development and use of land and structures and to allow for the matter-of-right development of existing lots of record, or with the intent of the R-2 zone to provide for areas predominantly developed with semi-detached houses on moderately sized lots.

The Board is required to give “great weight” to the recommendation of the Office of Planning. D.C. Official Code § 6-623.04 (2012 Repl.). For the reasons discussed above, the Board does not agree with OP’s recommendation that the application should be approved in this case.

The Board is also required to give “great weight” to the issues and concerns raised by the affected ANC. Section 13(d) of the Advisory Neighborhood Commissions Act of 1975, effective March 26, 1976 (D.C. Law 1-21; D.C. Official Code § 1-309.10(d)(3)(A) (2012 Repl.)). In this case ANC 7C voted to support the application subject to the condition that the application would also be supported by the Northeast Boundary Civic Association; when the association declined to support the application due to the small size of the lot, the ANC also declined to support the application. For the reasons discussed above, the Board concludes that the application should not be granted in this case.

Based on the findings of fact and conclusion of law, the Board concludes that the Applicant has not satisfied the burden of proof with respect to the request for an area variance from the side yard requirements of Subtitle D § 206.2 to construct a new detached principal dwelling unit in the R-2 zone at 419 57th Street, N.E. (Square 5228, Lot 14). Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the application is DENIED.
