

Bishop George F. Haskins Jr.
Pastor and Founder
Assembly of the Saints
Suitland, Maryland

Bishop George F. Haskins, Jr. is a native of Norfolk, Virginia, where he is a graduate of Booker T. Washington High School. He continued his education at Durham Business College where he majored in Business Administration. Bishop Haskins went on to further his education at Howard University's Washington Bible College where he was on the Dean's list and received his Bachelors' degree.

God called Bishop Haskins to the ministry on June 11, 1979 where he became a member and minister of Revival Temple under Bishop Milton Carter. While there, he continued studying the Word of God and waited on his ministry. In the year of 1984, he was ordained and became the Pastor and Founder of the Assembly of the Saints Inc. in the Washington Metropolitan area. His dynamic ministry is biblically based and its only purpose is to win souls to Christ. His vision for the Assembly of the Saints Church is to become a positive influence in the community and show the people a better way of living through Jesus Christ. Bishop Haskins is an outstanding leader, teacher and spiritual advisor to many. He often speaks to other churches, conferences and Christian fellowships. He leads by example. He is widely recognized for his wisdom, understanding and knowledge of Christian theology and biblical teaching. Bishop Haskins is not so particularly concerned about his degrees or his studies, but is very happy because he has been born again and filled with the Holy Ghost. Not luke warm, not cold, but hot for the Lord.

He is accompanied by a mighty woman of God, the First Lady Dianne M. Haskins. Who means everything to him and whom he states that without her he would not be whole. Together, God has been able to operate through them a great ministry of power, love, deliverance and a peace of mind.

Bishop George F. Haskins, Jr. has established the Assembly of the Saints No.2 in Norfolk, Virginia. "God is Greatly to be Fear in the Assembly of the Saints" Psalms 89:7. In Jesus Name!
