RE BZA Case 17842 (901-903 D St NE)

DC OFFICE OF ZONING
RECEIVED
2008 NOV 21 PM 3:36

Dear Mr Moy,

I have received today an email copy of an undated letter from Anthony M Rachal, III, General Counsel, DC Teachers Federal Credit Union (DCTFCU) Mr Rachal proposes that the credit union's architect and the ANC meet again to consider what actions should be taken to address the ANC's conditions To quote him "This review will address the adoption of the most feasible options with the least financial impacts to the Credit Union and the least adverse impacts to the community in these difficult economic times (The architect) Mr Maiden will file prepare (sic) designs and coordinate them with Commissioner David Homes (sic) as directed by your letter"

I was at the Office of Zoning, carrying the ANC's letter of opposition to BZA #17842 based on the applicant's lack of response, when I received this email I have not filed the opposition, but request instead that the Board grant a 30- or 60-day extension on this matter It will take some time for DCTFCU to develop proposals and present them to the ANC I had expected that this would have been done earlier, but hope for a mutually acceptable solution

Respectfully, as the designated representative of ANC 6A,

David Holmes
Commissioner 6A03
