

Statement of Existing and Intended Use

The current owner of the Property operates a "Ronald McDonald House" temporary shelter for families with children being treated for serious illnesses in D.C. area hospitals. The existing certificate of occupancy provides for occupancy of up to 58 residents.

The Applicant is proposing to house up to 96 resident nuns in a Religious Group Residence, as more particularly described in the Applicant's Statement. The principal daily activities of the sisters include daily prayer, mass (in an on-site chapel), and on-site study
