To Whom It May Concern:

Please withdraw permit application 18170. Cameron, who originated the application is currently deployed and will not return to the states for a year. It is near impossible for me to spend the time to get up to speed on the process while trying to communicate the details to him while on deployment. We would like to wait until he returns and we will revisit the process/application at that time.

Thank you for your time,

Anna Fox
