Board of Zoning Adjustment
District of Columbia
CASE NO. 18335
EXHIBIT NO. 41

January 31, 2013

To whom this may concern,
I am asking for a motion to modify Condition #2 (age change) on BZA application number 18335. No other conditions will be requested for change.

There is a great demand in DC, particularly in Wards 2 and 4 for Infantile Day Care Service. Recent research showed that women desiring to return to work 6 1/2 weeks after giving birth have limited choices for licensed professionals in DC.
Trusting Hands can be licensed in DC
and is in the process of securing child care license.

A copy of this letter along with form to modify condition #2 on BZA # 18335 has been mailed to ANC, Office of Planning, and all other interest persons listed on BZA app. # 18335.

Dear Mr. Nero,

I am writing to confirm that the Washington Ethical Society has a lease with Trusting Hands Child Development Center LLC, and that we support their request to have our zoning changed to include infant care.

We look forward to working with Trusting Hands, and we are well aware of the high need for infant care in our neighborhood. We are hopeful that Trusting Hands' request will be granted and that they will be able to provide, in our building, this most needed service.

Sincerely,
