

My name is Maria L. and I am the owner of a daycare here in Brightwood that is called The Little Green Nest.

I have successfully operated out of my home for over a year now, taking care of the neighborhood children with great care in a loving home environment. It has been my pleasure serving this community with my business and I also take great pride in living in Brightwood, the best kept secret in Washington.

I am writing this letter to ask for your help. I would like to expand my home day care to include serving more babies and toddlers because the demand has been so high. As a result I would like your input and signature to verify that this is the right decision for my business and my community.

Respectfully,

Ms. Maria Lora
Owner
The Little Green Nest
