To whom it may concern;

Ms. Cynthia Davis is currently a member and on the board of the New Family Childcare Home Providers Association of Washington, DC. She has been a member of the Association for 3 years. Her skill set doesn't go un-noted within the association as she continues to excel above and beyond the call of her duties. Ms. Davis is known as one of the providers of "Good Will" due to her willingness to support new provider's and volunteers to help in where children are concerned.

As the President of the Association it is my great pleasure to speak to the character of one of the most promising provider in the Washington DC area who gives quality care to her students and the parents she serve. We are proud to have her as our Secretary of the New Family Childcare Providers Association and as our friend.

Respectfully Submitted,

Ms. Diane Jackson

To whom it may concern,

I am what I would call a new young professional dad. My wife and I were very particular about our first child being introduced to childcare based on the various myths about abuse, unfounded urban legends about how children are treated and cared for in the conventional child care institutions and probably more than anything just plain fear at the fact that someone would be spending the majority of the daytime hours with our child was quite frightening.

My family's experience with Kings & Queens Child Care Center, LLC has been more than what I could of imagined. I initially meet with Ms. Davis on an impromptu pop-up visit to her center during a process of probably interviewing over 15 other possible candidates. I choose Ms. Davis based on a few things that really made her and her King & Queens Child Care Center, LLC establishment stand out. The cleanliness of the childcare space that was available for the children, Kings & Queens Child Care Center, LLC's child to caregiver ratio, Ms. Davis' complete transparency with her desire to complete additional college coursework to further her career in the Childcare field, and Ms. Davis' undeniable love for the children that she was currently caring for and the reciprocated love that the children expelled towards her as well. Her children that she had at that time were older than my then 3 month old son but those older children just looked as happy and of course full of energy and excitement about being in her presence. That along with a gut feeling that was telling me that this should be the place that my family should have our son at made my family's decision fairly simple.

I really have enjoyed the service that my family has been able to depend on from Ms. Davis' and her staff. If Kings & Queens Child Care Center, LLC past 16 months of servicing my family has received is to be used as litmus test, of what service that Ms. Davis would likely extend to any additional families she might be graced to assist if her expansion of her current daycare. I am strongly in favor of her being granted that ability to share her gift to love children, watch over them as if they are her own them in a safe, educational and loving environment. I am certain that is exactly what they should expect.

Sincerely,

A satisfied father of a child attending Kings & Queens LLC

MEMORANDUM

From: Dawn Cornish
To: To whom it may Concern
Date: March 20, 2013

Re: Letter of Recommendation for Cynthia Davis of King's & Queens Child Care Center.

When Ms. Davis asked me to write a letter of recommendation for her and her facility I was honored. My daughter De'Nae has been attending Kings & Queens Child Care Center for almost two years and we are pleased with the services Ms. Davis provides for my family. All I have to do is drop-off my child and Ms. Davis takes care of the rest. She provides a clean, safe and spacious environment for my daughter. There are ample amounts of age appropriate cribs, cots, toys, reading materials and games. Ms. Davis pays for all trips for students at her facility. My daughter recently attended the circus and was very excited when she returned home. Ms. Davis also goes beyond the call of duty and takes us to the station on inclement weather days.

In the morning during departure time, my daughter never wants to leave and is eager to return in the evenings. Kings & Queens Child Care Center provides nutritious meals and snacks to take with us on our bus ride home. I currently reside in Southeast Washington, D.C. and travel to Northwest to bring my child to a well-run quality facility. I would recommend Ms. Cynthia Davis of Kings & Queens Child Care Center to any family in search of child care.

Sincerely,
Dawn Cornish
