

To the Office of the Zoning Commission of the District of Columbia:

I am writing this letter to endorse the application of my neighbor, Mike Lewis, for a special exception for the maintenance of a single basement apartment at his home address, 4434 Tindall Street, N.W., under the District of Columbia's zoning regulations.

My husband and I have lived at 4442 Tindall Street, NW, two doors down from Mr. Lewis's property, since before he moved in in 1999. He began to rent his apartment to American University students several years ago. We have had no problem with any of his tenants. (I have met some of them since I periodically care for Mr. Lewis's cat when he travels out of town.) Nor has Mr. Lewis's rental unit had any adverse effect on our neighborhood.

I hope you will grant his application for a special exception.

Sincerely,

Susan Harlem
