

STATEMENT OF EXISTING AND INTENDED USE

The Site is currently improved with six vacant lots and three lots with existing row structures that are proposed to be demolished. The application proposes to subdivide and combine the existing lots on the Site and construct a ten-story residential building with ground floor retail and one level of below grade parking.