

Explanation Regarding a Surveyor's Plat and Architectural Plans and Elevations

The application provides that no exterior construction in or on the Property is planned or proposed in connection with the use by the Applicant of the Property as a private school. Therefore, there is no requirement to include a Surveyor's Plat or architectural plans and elevations with the application.