Dear Paul,

We own and reside in a single-family residence at 3604 DAVIS NW Washington, DC 20007. Our home is in the block immediately adjacent to the building at 2505 Wisconsin Avenue, which was issued building permits by DCRA on May 7, 2015. We want to appeal the issuance of those permits.

We hereby authorize you and Harkins Cunningham LLP to appear on our behalf, pro bono, before the Board of Zoning Adjustment as our representative and agent to make our appeal with the power to bind us in the appeal proceeding before the Board.

Sincerely,

Dear Paul,

I own and reside in a single family residence at 2606 36th Place, NW, Washington DC, 20007. My home is in the neighborhood that borders the building at 2505 Wisconsin Avenue, which was issued building permits by DCRA on May 7, 2015. I want to appeal the issuance of those permits.

I hereby authorize you and Harkins Cunningham LLP to appear on my behalf, pro bono, before the Board of Zoning Adjustment as my representative and agent to make my appeal with the power to bind me in the appeal proceeding before the Board.

Sincerely,
