

To: DC Office of Zoning

I have become aware that a 4-story 6-unit condo building on 14th St is being built without any parking. This will reduce available parking on Quincy and Spring substantially. I would therefore like the city to enforce the zoning rules for this building, and any other in the future. We need to make sure that new development does not negatively impact lives of existing residents.

Thank you.

Regards,
Ferhan Ture
Resident of:
3821 14th St NW #9
Washington, DC 20011