

DISTRIBUTION OF COMMUNITY AMENITIES

Shaed Elementary School – for contribution to the school's professional development program; software for computer classes; student field-trips; and supplemental classroom reading materials.

J.F. Cook Elementary School for the purchase of student school supplies.

Dunbar Senior High School for the purchase of band and cheerleader uniforms and band instruments.

McKinley Technology High School to be directed to the school's Biotechnology, Broadcast Technology and Information Technology instructional programs.

William E. Doar, Jr. Public Charter School for the Performing Arts for the purchase of musical instruments, including percussion, wind and string instruments.

D.C. Preparatory Academy PCS for the purchase of teacher professional development and student extended day programs, including academic tutoring and sports and arts enrichment.

Installation of an entrance gate at the Florida Avenue Park located at the intersection of First Street and Florida Avenue.

North Capitol Main Street Inc. for community improvement projects.

The North Capitol Street BID Incubation Fund for the creation of a community improvement district project on the North Capitol Street corridor from R Street to O Street.

Edgewood Civic Association for the association's college scholarship fund and school supplies for students.

Bloomington Civic Association for youth sports activities, uniforms, and student scholarships sponsored by the association.

Eckington Civic Association for development of a neighborhood website and community newsletters and the creation of a fund to assist seniors with quality of life issues.

Stronghold Civic Association for youth sports activities, uniforms, and student scholarships.

Bates Street Civic Association for the installation of gates for a pocket park and wrought iron borders for tree boxes.

The 5th District Citizens Advisory Committee for contribution to the committee's block captain pilot program and sponsoring of public safety awareness programs, youth-related events and community-police liaison activities with area community groups and schools.