

Architectural Review Board Description

Duties. The Committees of the Architectural Review Board shall regulate the external design and appearance of the Property and the external design, appearance and location of the improvements thereon in such a manner so as to preserve and enhance property values and to maintain harmonious relationships among structures and the natural vegetation and topography. During the period the Architectural Review Board is comprised of the two (2) committees described above, the New Construction Committee shall regulate all initial construction, development or improvements on the Property. The Modification and Change Committee shall regulate all modifications and changes to existing improvements on the Property. In furtherance thereof, the Architectural Review Board shall:

- (a) review and approve or disapprove written applications of Owners for proposed alterations or additions to Lots;
- (b) periodically inspect the Property for compliance with adopted, written architectural standards and approved plans for alteration;
- (c) adopt and publish architectural standards subject to the confirmation of the Board of Directors;
- (d) adopt procedures for the exercise of its duties; and
- (e) maintain complete and accurate records of all actions taken by the Architectural Review Board.

Approval by the Architectural Review Board of a correctly filed application shall not be deemed to be an approval by applicable governmental authorities nor a waiver of the applicant's obligation to obtain any required governmental approvals or to comply with applicable local ordinances.
