Dear Mr. Hood:

My name is MJ Park and I am the director of Little Friends For Peace at The Perry School in DC. I am writing in support of Georgetown University's 2010 Campus Plan. Georgetown University has been an outstanding partner to Little Friends For Peace and has done wonderful work in our community. Their faculty and students have provided countless hours of mentoring, teaching, modeling and support for our students and families. The Little Friends For Peace - Peace Room is located in The Perry School Community Service Center in DC -NW.

Georgetown University medical students, in particular, have volunteered in this community for 8 years. The medical students work closely with me preparing lessons, presentations and activities for the children in the Peace Class.

Georgetown University has been a strong partner in improving the quality of life for low-income, youth, teens and family residents in this community. I believe the University's service to LFFP and Perry School exemplifies their commitment to the greater community. We are extremely fortunate to have Georgetown University as our partner and appreciate all that they continue to do.

Sincerely,

MJ Park
Co-Director of Little Friends For Peace
