RECEIVED
D.C. ZONING COMMISSION
441 4TH STREET NW, SUITE 210
WASHINGTON, DC 20001

To whom it may concern:

I am outraged at the tactics of the Burleith, Glover Park, and Georgetown communities utilized in response to Georgetown University's ten-year plan. Georgetown University has done everything within its powers to accommodate the concerns of the surrounding communities, but the communities want nothing less than the downsizing or even dismantling of one of the Nation's greatest universities. As a long-time DC resident and alum of Georgetown University, I ask that you approve Georgetown University's ten-year plan and reject any further efforts on behalf of the community groups to derail the university's efforts to serve the District and the nation.

Sincerely,

Paul Weinstein
