Person vs. Party in a Proceeding

Any person or representative of an organization may provide written and/or oral testimony at a public hearing. A person who desires to participate as a party in a proceeding, however, must make a request and must comply with the provisions on this form. A party has the right to cross-examine witnesses, submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, receive a copy of the written decision of the Zoning Commission or Board of Zoning Adjustment, and exercise any other rights of parties as specified in the Zoning Regulations. Approval of party status is contingent upon the requester clearly demonstrating that his or her interest will be more significantly, distinctively, or uniquely affected by the proposed zoning action than that of other persons.

APPEARANCE AND REPRESENTATION

In a proceeding before the Zoning Commission or Board of Zoning Adjustment, any person or party may appear on his or her own behalf. Any person or party may be represented by any other person duly authorized in writing to do so. The authorization shall state specifically that the authorization includes the power of the agent or representation to bind the person in the case.

Except for the applicant, appellant or the ANC, to participate as a party in a proceeding before the Board, any affected person shall file with the Zoning Commission or Board of Zoning Adjustment, not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for the hearing, the following information.

- (a) The person's name and address;

 - (1) The property owned or occupied by such person, or in which such person has an interest, that will be affected by the action requested of the Board;
 - (2) The legal interest such person has in such property, such as owner, tenant, trustee or mortgagee;
 - (3) The distance between such person's property and the property that is the subject of the application or appeal before the Board;
 - (4) The environmental, economic or social impacts that are likely to affect such person and/or such person's property if the action requested of the Board is approved or denied; and
 - (5) Any other relevant matters that demonstrate how such person likely will be affected or aggrieved if the action requested of the Board is approved or denied.
- (g) In considering any request for party status pursuant to §3106.2, the Board shall grant party status only if the person has clearly demonstrated that his or her interests will be more significantly, distinctively or uniquely affected in character or kind by the proposed zoning action than those of other persons in the general public.
