ANTHONY A. WILLIAMS
MAYOR

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
00 MAR -2 P5:46

Dr. Richard Scaldini
President and CEO
Jewish Primary Day School of the Nation's Capitol
1625 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20036

Dear Dr. Scaldini:

Thank you for keeping my office updated on the issue of the relocation of the Jewish Primary Day School (JPDS). I also appreciate the fact that your group is willing to work with both my Executive Office and the Department of Planning so that we can resolve this matter in a manner that satisfies all affected parties.

As Mayor, I would like to add my strongest support to your efforts to remain in the District of Columbia. JPDS is one of many institutions, both secular and non-secular, that play a vital role in preserving the cultural diversity that comprise the District environment and contributes to the vibrant and diverse society in the District. As the District's only remaining Jewish day school, the Office of the Mayor is committed to keeping this vital link to Jewish heritage in the District. Please continue to work with my office to find an amicable solution to the challenges of securing interim and permanent space in the District.

Sincerely,

Anthony A. Williams
Mayor
