Mrs. Sheila Cross Reid, Director
Board of Zoning Adjustment
Suite 210, 441 , Fourth Street, N.W.
Washington, D. C. 20001

Dear Mrs. Reid:

I understand that the Board of Zoning Adjustment is holding a hearing today to consider neighbor response to Georgetown University's Master Plan for the Year 2000. I am sorry I was not aware of this sooner so that I might attend to emphasize my opposition to the Plan.

Most students are probably reasonable citizens but, without doubt, there are others who are not mature and/or well mannered enough to be welcome neighbors. I have lived in my house for over thirty years. I was nervous when the Duke Ellington School was opened. Those students are good neighbors. The Georgetown students on the other hand have on many occasions woken me at three or four in the morning with drunken, loud behavior . I find trash and broken bottles outside my front door. In my opinion , we have too many students now and the University is not , as far as I can see, in control of these young people on or off the campus.

Sincerely yours,

Rose R. Blakely
