Re: BZA Application No. 16566-D (Procedural Order on Remand) –
President and Directors of Georgetown College

Dear Mr. Griffis and Members of the Board:

On behalf of the Citizens Association of Georgetown ("CAG"), a party in this case, we are requesting an extension of six days in the filing deadline for the proposed order required by Board Order 16566-D. CAG requests this extension in order to fully comply with the requirement that each finding of fact include a citation to the record evidence. It was CAG's understanding that this requirement only applied to those findings of fact that were placed at issue before the Court of Appeals. However, CAG recently received oral advice indicating that every finding of fact, including those that were not at issue, requires a citation. As CAG does not possess a complete copy of the record in this case, accomplishing this task will be more difficult than originally planned. CAG believes that this can be accurately completed by December 23, 2004.

Respectfully Submitted,

Richard Hindsfow
