Dear Ms. Cross-Reid:

I am a long time resident of Burleith – a community which borders Georgetown University and which over the years has been seriously impacted by the number of students who live off-campus in group houses in our neighborhood.

My block of "T" Street has ten or more houses occupied by students. The residents are subjected to excessive noise, cars parked in gardens and alleys littered with overflowing trash cans. All of these issues affect the quality of life in this neighborhood.

I urge the Board to deny Georgetown University's request to increase enrollment because of the negative impact on our community.

Sincerely,

Peggy Breckenridge
