Ms. Sheila Cross Reid, Chairperson
D.C. Board of Zoning Adjustment
441 4th Street, N.W. Suite 210
Washington, D.C. 20001

Dear Ms. Reid:

The Public Welfare Foundation, Inc. is the Applicant for Board of Zoning Adjustment (BZA) approval of a special exception to establish accessory parking for our new headquarters in the True Reformer Building at 1200 U Street, N.W. The accessory parking lot is proposed to be located immediately south of the True Reformer Building, on Lots 71 through 75 in Square 274. The application is made pursuant to §3104.1 of the District of Columbia Zoning Regulations ("Zoning Regulations"), for a special exception under §214 to provide accessory parking spaces for the use of employees of the Public Welfare Foundation, Inc. and visitors. The Public Welfare Foundation, Inc. is the owner of the affected properties.

In compliance with 11 DCMR §3106.1 and §3113.4, the Applicant hereby appoints and authorizes Peter Szegedy-Maszak, Nathan W. Gross and Pelayo Coll of the law firm of Arnold & Porter to be our agents and representatives, as individuals or collectively, for all purposes of said Application and in all matters or proceedings, including public hearings. Furthermore, the Applicant ratifies and confirms that Messrs. Szegedy-Maszak, Gross and Coll, either as individuals or collectively, shall have the legal power and authority to bind the Applicant regarding any decisions, proceedings or other matters related to the instant case before the BZA.

Sincerely,

Stephen Borko
Acting Business Manager
Public Welfare Foundation, Inc.
