STATEMENT OF EXISTING AND INTENDED USES

The Edmund Burke School (the "School") has operated as a private school in the District of Columbia since 1968 and has been located at 2955 Upton Street, N.W. since 1973. Through this application, the School seeks to expand its existing private school facilities to the two lots located directly west of the existing School building. The Edmund Burke School currently has 300 students and fifty-nine faculty and staff. The School requests a maximum student population of 330 students and a maximum faculty and staff population of sixty-eight.
