CONSENT MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME WITHIN WHICH TO RESPOND TO MOTION OF PARTY OPPONENTS TO DISMISS APPLICANT'S REQUEST FOR CERTAIN AREA VARIANCES AND SPECIAL EXCEPTIONS

On May 4, 2001 certain neighbors of The Phillips Collection who have been admitted as parties in opposition to the application of The Phillips Collection in this case filed a motion to dismiss The Phillips' application. The Phillips' opposition or other response to that motion would therefore be due by Monday, May 14, 2001.[1]

The parties are still intensively engaged in mediation under the auspices of the D.C. Office of Planning; sessions are scheduled for Friday, May 11th and Monday, May 14th. The Phillips would much prefer to devote its energies to trying to hammer out an agreement with its neighbors on the remaining issues which separate them than on preparing legal pleadings to justify their application before the Board. Accordingly, The Phillips requests that the Board extend the time within which the museum must file its response to the neighbors' motion from Monday, May 14, 2001 to and including Thursday, May 17, 2001.

Counsel for the neighbors identified as the Party Opponents have authorized undersigned
