Suit 210-S

Dear Ms. Kress,

This is to urge you to allow the continuation of the Georgetown Flea Market at Hardy School. I understand that the Flea Market will close unless it receives a zoning variance from the D.C. Board of Zoning Adjustment (BZA Application #76643), and that a hearing has been set for January 30, 2001.

Although I have been a homeowner in the District of Columbia since 1970, I am relatively new to the Georgetown-Burleith-Glover Park area. Since I bought my present house in 1999, I have enjoyed the many charming aspects of this wonderful neighborhood, and the Flea Market is certainly one. It is a place which brings life and interest to a neighborhood. What we need are more institutions like the Flea Market, not fewer.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Bennett
