Subject: BZA Application #16643

Dear Mr. Kress:

This letter is to strongly support the continuation of The Georgetown Flea Market in it's present location. The Georgetown Flea Market is a local institution, and it would be a mistake to run them out of town. Apparently the majority of the residents are overwhelmingly in favor of its continuance, as well as most of the businesses in the neighborhood. People from everywhere within the neighboring towns, cities, counties, as well as people from as far away as West Virginia, Pennsylvania come here to see the flea market on Sundays, and as far as I can tell are about as orderly a group as you're likely to find. They spend money while they are here, therefore bringing revenue to the city.

I have known Mr. Sussman since he started the market. As a matter of fact, that is where we first got started in the antiques business, as well as two other prominent antiques dealers: Marston Luce Antiques, and Second Story Books. A lot of antiques dealers have gotten there start there over the last twenty-nine years, and have paid lots of DC taxes over the years.

You will deprive the local area of a worthwhile INSTITUTION if you discontinue the Georgetown Flea Market the right to stay where they are, which, otherwise is an empty parking lot on Sundays.

Thank you for your consideration.
