To Whom It May Concern:

I spent several weekends during the past summer at the Superior Services Group Home on 1313 Harvard Street managed by Stan and Barbara Blackwell. I was working specifically with Prentis Richardson, one of the residents, but that didn't stop me from noticing that the place seemed to be run in an exceptional manner. The house itself was always clean and pleasant. The food, in particular, was excellent. Most notably, Stan and Barbara organized a barbecue in which clients from other parts of the city were able to spend time with the current members of the group home. It was a truly festive gathering, one that the clients seemed to enjoy. In closing I would like to say a few words about Stan and Barbara. They have always been extremely gracious to me and seem to have a genuine concern for each and every one of the residents of 1313 Harvard Street.

Sincerely,

S.J. Valentine
