C. R. GEORGE DOVE, FAIA, APA
Principal

Mr. Dove has been a practicing architect and planner for more than 30 years, primarily in the Washington, DC area. He joined the Weihe Design Group, PLLC (WDG) in 1971 and became a Principal in 1978. His specialized training in urban planning has produced skillful site and master planning efforts for the firm's complex multi-use projects. He has been instrumental in the design and project management of many of WDG's award-winning projects. Mr. Dove has extensive experience in the design of a wide variety of building types, including multifamily residential and office, and maintains a strong interest in historic preservation, renovation and adaptive reuse. As Managing Principal, Mr. Dove oversees design and production efforts on a daily basis and is valuable as a resource at all times.

Recognized as a leader in the architectural profession, Mr. Dove has served on the national Board of Directors of the American Institute of Architects (AIA), President of the Washington Chapter/AIA and President of the Washington Building Congress. In addition, he has provided assistance on review and oversight boards with public planning and design presentations, particularly as they relate to historic preservation.
