INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND:

This investigation was initiated based on an observation of unlicensed sales, service and consumption of alcoholic beverages on the premises after previous verbal warnings to the President of the African Community Center, Inc., t/a African Community Center, at #39 New York Ave., N.E.

SUMMARY:

While conducting night investigations on April 7, 2002, at approximately 03:00 (DST) I entered the premise of #39 New York Avenue, N.E. and observed patrons consuming alcoholic beverages on the second floor of the building. Metropolitan Police (MPDC) were notified as Officer Koenic, Badge #4190, and Officer R. Zurowski, Badge #2295, responded at 03:30 and prepared a PD 251 (Incident Report) under CCN # 050-954 (enclosure #01). The PD-251 listed the incorrect address of # 39 Florida Ave. NE, but was corrected on a supplemental PD-252.

INVESTIGATION:

In the normal course of conducting night investigations and inspections while assigned as an Investigator to the Alcoholic Beverage Regulation Administration (ABRA) it became known that an establishment was operating on the second level of #39 New York Ave., N.E. during the night time hours. The business operated as the African Community Center, Inc., t/a African Community Center. The establishment is known to offer live entertainment, including bands featuring African music. In the past year the establishment has been observed charging an admission fee to attend such events at the location.

I observed alcoholic beverages being sold, served and consumed on the premise by the patrons of the establishment. Patrons have been observed leaving the establishment with open bottles of beer and liquor. Patrons have also been observed seated at tables in the large main hall on the second floor consuming alcoholic beverages after buying the same from a kitchen area located toward the front of the main hall. Food items are stored in one of two refrigerators located in the kitchen. The kitchen (enclosure # 02) has an open counter area where patrons purchase the food and alcoholic beverages with money or tickets that the patrons have previously purchased. Patrons have been observed on four separate occasions dancing to a live band performing at the rear of the large hall.

The African Community Center, Inc. is not a licensed ABC establishment in the District of Columbia. Barbara Goodwin, the Records Management Specialist for ABRA conducted a record search and found no record of an ABC License issued to African Community Center, Inc. or the address of #39 New York Ave., N.E. Barbara Goodwin conducted the search on April 24, 2002, as part of her official duties as custodian of records for ABRA. Enclosure #03 was prepared attesting to the record search.

Control #: 386- ABRA- 2002
Application #: Unlicensed

Records of the Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (DCRA), Business Services Division (BSD), were searched to determine if the establishment had a business license as required by law. There is no record of a Restaurant License or Public Hall License issued to the African Community Center, Inc., or for the address of #39 New York Ave., N.E. Meredith Scott, Program Manager, BSD, DCRA conducted the record search. A Certification of no Restaurant License and no Public Hall License was prepared and signed by Meredith Scott on April 25, 2002 (enclosure #04).

A record search was conducted of the available corporation records maintained by the Corporation Division of DCRA. The search produced a copy of the Articles of Incorporation (enclosure #05) for the African Community Center, Inc. The articles were filed on July 19, 2000. According the Articles of Incorporation, Francis J. Bundu is recorded as a director of the corporation along with Sarah A. Bundu, and Gibrilla Bundu. The fourth director is Mohamed C. Kamara. In addition Mr. Bundu is listed as the registered agent for the corporation.

A Two-Year Report (enclosure #06) filed on behalf of the corporation on April 11, 2001, lists Francis J Bundu as the President of the corporation, along with Gibrilla Bundu, as the Vice President of the African Community Center Inc. Mrs. Sarah A. Bundu is listed as the Treasurer of the corporation. Mr. Mohamed Kamara is recorded as the Secretary of the African Community Center, Inc. The corporation, African Community Center, Inc., is in good standing according to a certification (enclosure #07) issued by DCRA, Corporation Division.

Records maintained by the Building and Land Regulation Administration (BLRA) of DCRA indicates a Certificate of Occupancy #188829 (enclosure #08) was filed on October 10, 2000. The Certificate of Occupancy issued to African Community Center, Inc. authorizes the use of the second floor at #39 New York Ave., N.E. The stated purpose of the use on the Certificate of Occupancy is for "office space" utilizing 1700 square feet. The area is zoned C-M-3. The application (enclosure #09) for the Certificate of Occupancy #188829 lists Francis J. Bundu as President and Sarah A. Bundu as Vice President of the corporation.

A follow-up investigation determined that the owner listed on the application for the Certificate of Occupancy #188829 is not the true owner of the property. The application lists Pauline Chidakel as the owner of the property. The owner of the property was determined to be #33 New York Ave., LLC. There is no record of #33 New York Ave., LLC, having filed as a corporation in the District of Columbia. The principal owner of #33 New York Ave., LLC, is Mr. Gerald Schaffer. An interview was conducted with Mr. Schaffer and his attorney. According to both Mr. Schaffer and his attorney, they were not aware that the African Community Center, Inc., or Francis J. Bundu was selling, serving, or permitting the consumption of alcoholic beverages on the premise. Mr. Schaffer was aware of the pending application before the Board of Zoning requesting a variance for the parking requirements of a public hall.

Application #: Unlicensed

Francis J. Bundu and Sarah A. Bundu had been verbally warned on previous occasions not to sell, serve, or permit the consumption of alcoholic beverages on the premise without first obtaining a Temporary One-Day ABC License from the ABC Board. On the first visit, Mrs. Sarah Bundu was present along with the facility manager, Henry Bolden. Mrs. Bundu and Mr. Bolden were warned that they were subject to arrest by the police for violation of D.C. Code §25-102, if they continued selling, serving or permitting the consumption of alcoholic beverages in the establishment. On the second occasion, Mr. Bolden was present while the establishment was having a function. During this event, patrons were again consuming alcoholic beverages without having first obtained a license to consume alcoholic beverages. Mr. Bundu was not present but was contacted by phone by Mr. Bolden. I spoke with Mr. Bundu by phone and again warned him of the violation. On the third violation, Mr. Bundu and Mr. Bolden were present in the office while an event was taking place in main hall of the building. I observed patrons entering the establishment and being handed small numbered tickets. I interviewed the person identified as the female that rented the hall from Mr. Bundu for a party. The tickets were for door prizes to be given away during the event. There were patrons of all ages present at the event. Patrons and guests were observed drinking alcoholic beverages consisting of various brands of beer and liquor. Mr. Bundu and Mr. Bolden were warned that this would be the last warning issued. If any alcoholic beverages were found inside of the establishment again the police would be notified to take the necessary action. Mr. Bundu expressed concern over the pending application before the Zoning Board. I informed Mr. Bundu that I was not concerned with the Public Hall issue at this time, only the presence of alcoholic beverages without a license and the events he was continuing to host.

On April 7, 2002, I observed a large number of vehicles parked in the area of the unit block of New York Ave., N.E. The establishment at #39 New York Ave., N.E. was again open and operating. Upon entering I observed a beer bottle at the top of the stairs. On the desk in the hallway were two half-empty beer bottles. Patrons were observed in the large hall at the rear of the building dancing to a live band. I then left the building and notified police communications to have a scout car respond to #33 New York Ave., N.E. where I would meet the officers on the lot.

Officer Koenic and Officer Zurowski arrived in response to the call for police services. Upon arrival the officers stated that scout cars were dispatched earlier for a domestic assault at the same location. The officers were briefed on my observations before we entered the building. The officers and I entered the main hall at the rear of the building and observed patrons dancing to a live band playing African music. Patrons were observed seated at table along the sides of the room. There were various brands of liquor and beer on the tables. The patrons and guests of the establishment were consuming the alcoholic beverages while some were walking about the dance hall with open containers of beer.

Despite the presence of the police officers the patrons continued the purchasing of the alcoholic beverages from the kitchen area. Patrons were observed exchanging tickets for the beer and wine from the kitchen area. There were several females present in the kitchen serving the patrons. Bottles of beer and wine were stored in large trash cans packed with ice (enclosure #10). Additional cases of beer and wine were stacked against the wall along side the refrigerator (enclosure #11).

The officers and I entered the office area after one of the females went to get the person in charge of the event. Mr. Bolden was in the office with two partially empty beer bottles (enclosure #12) on the desk. When Mr. Bolden was informed why the officers and I were there, he responded he "was ready to go." Mr. Bolden acknowledged to the officers that he had been warned on previous occasions that he was subject to arrest for violation of D.C. Code §25-102. Mr. Bolden stated that he was "ready to go to jail." Mr. Bolden stated that this event was planned at the last minute to raise money for a member's transplant operation. Mr. Bolden showed the officers and I a flyer (enclosure #13) that announced the event and the entrance fee of $10 person. Mr. Bolden repeated that was prepared to go to jail for this cause.

Mr. Bolden phoned Mr. Bundu at home and informed Mr. Bundu that the police were preparing to take him to jail. Mr. Bundu refused to come to the building and secure the property. I spoke by phone with Mr. Bundu several times while present inside the establishment. Mr. Bundu repeatedly asked that I overlook the violation. He asked what we intended to do in regards to the violation. Mr. Bundu was informed that the information would be presented to the Office of Corporation Counsel in order to obtain an arrest warrant for his arrest.

Mr. Bundu was made aware of the requirement to obtain a Temporary ABC License as required by law both by personal warning and based on an applicant attempting to obtain a Class G License (enclosure #14) for the location of #39 New York Ave., N.E., on March 3, 2001. The applicant, Kevin C. Rhoden, filed for the license on February 26, 2001. This application listed Kiddimus Productions as the sponsor of the event. The application was assigned application #39470 and license #29425. As part of the application the applicant was required to produce a letter on the letterhead of establishment authorizing the sale, service and consumption of alcoholic beverages at the address of the event. Kevin Rhoden obtained such a letter on the letterhead of the African Community Center, Inc. signed by Gibrilla Bundu. Gibrilla Bundu is listed as the Vice President of African Community Center. The letter is dated February 26, 2001.

The ABC Board did not act on application #39470 and no license was approved for the event on March 3, 2001.

A second application (enclosure #15) was filed on April 10, 2002, for an event at #39 New York Ave., N.E. This application was assigned application #40293, license #30910. The applicant, Mary Anderson, included as part of the application a letter from "Bundu Hall" and signed by Sarah A. Bundu authorizing the service and consumption of beer and wine at #39 New York Ave., N.E. The application package included a copy of the Certificate of Occupancy #188829, issued to African Community Center, Inc. Application #40293 was filed 3 days after the police and I visited the establishment and informed Mr. Bundu of the pending investigation.

AFFIDAVIT

The undersigned applicant, KEVIN R Moore hereby attests that he/she has not been charged or convicted of a felony during the last ten (10) years, or a misdemeanor during the last five (5) years.

As a representative of Kold Times Productions I acknowledge that according to the "District of Columbia Legal Drinking Age Amendment Emergency Act of 1986", D.C. Act 6-207, one must be 21 years of age to consume any alcoholic beverage (including beer, wine and liquor) in the District of Columbia.

It is important that I determine the age of persons serving or consuming alcoholic beverages. Under Alcoholic Beverage Control Rules, Title 23, Section 503, I may request as identification any official identification issued by municipal, federal, state, or foreign government or university photograph (if the university is in the District of Columbia). If the person resides outside of the District of Columbia and has no photograph identification, a second piece of identification with signature may be required and that I may ask the person to reproduce the signature in the presence of the person checking identification.

I understand that failure to adhere to the provision of the new drinking age law, may jeopardize my organization's ability to obtain a license in the future.

Additionally, I hereby certify that I have been advised by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Staff that at no time during the special event for which I've applied for a temporary Alcoholic Beverage Control license will any alcoholic beverages be dispensed or served in any cans or bottles. All alcoholic beverages shall be dispensed or served in paper or plastic cups.
