September 1, 2001

Ms. Sheila Cross Reid, Chairperson
Government of The District of Columbia
Board of Zoning Adjustment
444 - 4th Street, N. W., Suite 220
Washington, D. C. 20001

Dear Chairperson Reid,

The buildings at 2415 and 2417 have been utilized as a multipurpose facility since 1950 identified as the Newman Center for Howard University. In 1999 the buildings were modified to a bed and breakfast facility identified as the "McMillan House". I as an owner of a neighboring property, endorse, without reservation the continued use of the properties as the "McMillan House" Bed and Breakfast.

Sincerely,

Alvin C. Harper

Owner, Alvin C. Harper
2427 First Street, N. W.

BZA
Case No. 16787
Exhibit No. 31

Board of Zoning Adjustment
District of Columbia
CASE NO.16787
EXHIBIT NO.31

September 1, 2001

Ms. Sheila Cross Reid, Chairperson
Government of The District of Columbia
Board of Zoning Adjustment
444 - 4th Street, N. W., Suite 220
Washington, D. C. 20001

Dear Chairperson Reid,

The buildings at 2415 and 2417 have been utilized as a multipurpose facility since 1950 identified as the Newman Center for Howard University. In 1999 the buildings were modified to a bed and breakfast facility identified as the "McMillan House". I as an owner of a neighboring property, endorse, without reservation the continued use of the properties as the "McMillan House" Bed and Breakfast.

Sincerely,

H. Adele Franklin

Owner, Havana Adele Franklin
2423 First Street, N. W.

September 1, 2001

Ms. Sheila Cross Reid, Chairperson
Government of The District of Columbia
Board of Zoning Adjustment
444 - 4th Street, N. W., Suite 220
Washington, D. C. 20001

Dear Chairperson Reid,

The buildings at 2415 and 2417 have been utilized as a multipurpose facility since 1950 identified as the Newman Center for Howard University. In 1999 the buildings were modified to a bed and breakfast facility identified as the "McMillan House". I as an owner of a neighboring property, endorse, without reservation the continued use of the properties as the "McMillan House" Bed and Breakfast.

Sincerely,

Janice E Young

Owner, Janice E. Young
2421 First Street, N. W..

September 1, 2001

Ms. Sheila Cross Reid, Chairperson
Government of The District of Columbia
Board of Zoning Adjustment
444 - 4th Street, N. W., Suite 220
Washington, D. C. 20001

Dear Chairperson Reid,

The buildings at 2415 and 2417 have been utilized as a multipurpose facility since 1950 identified as the Newman Center for Howard University. In 1999 the buildings were modified to a bed and breakfast facility identified as the "McMillan House". I as an owner of a neighboring property, endorse, without reservation the continued use of the properties as the "McMillan House" Bed and Breakfast.

Sincerely,

Owner, DOUGLAS SMALL
2409 First Street, N. W..

September 1, 2001

Ms. Sheila Cross Reid, Chairperson
Government of The District of Columbia
Board of Zoning Adjustment
444 - 4th Street, N. W., Suite 220
Washington, D. C. 20001

Dear Chairperson Reid,

The buildings at 2415 and 2417 have been utilized as a multipurpose facility since 1950 identified as the Newman Center for Howard University. In 1999 the buildings were modified to a bed and breakfast facility identified as the "McMillan House". I as an owner of a neighboring property, endorse, without reservation the continued use of the properties as the "McMillan House" Bed and Breakfast.

Sincerely,

Owner,
2407 First Street, N. W..

Julian I. Blair
Renee Blair

September 1, 2001

Ms. Sheila Cross Reid, Chairperson
Government of The District of Columbia
Board of Zoning Adjustment
444 - 4th Street, N. W., Suite 220
Washington, D. C. 20001

Dear Chairperson Reid,

The buildings at 2415 and 2417 have been utilized as a multipurpose facility since 1950 identified as the Newman Center for Howard University. In 1999 the buildings were modified to a bed and breakfast facility identified as the "McMillan House". I as an owner of a neighboring property, endorse, without reservation the continued use of the properties as the "McMillan House" Bed and Breakfast.

Sincerely,

Owner, Comelia R. Sanford
66 Channing Street, N. W.

September 1, 2001

Ms. Sheila Cross Reid, Chairperson
Government of The District of Columbia
Board of Zoning Adjustment
444 - 4th Street, N. W., Suite 220
Washington, D. C. 20001

Dear Chairperson Reid,

The buildings at 2415 and 2417 have been utilized as a multipurpose facility since 1950 identified as the Newman Center for Howard University. In 1999 the buildings were modified to a bed and breakfast facility identified as the "McMillan House". I as an owner of a neighboring property, endorse, without reservation the continued use of the properties as the "McMillan House" Bed and Breakfast.

Sincerely,

Margaret G. Washington

Owner, Margaret G. Washington
75 Bryant Street, N. W.

September 1, 2001

Ms. Sheila Cross Reid, Chairperson
Government of The District of Columbia
Board of Zoning Adjustment
444 - 4th Street, N. W., Suite 220
Washington, D. C. 20001

Dear Chairperson Reid,

The buildings at 2415 and 2417 have been utilized as a multipurpose facility since 1950 identified as the Newman Center for Howard University. In 1999 the buildings were modified to a bed and breakfast facility identified as the "McMillan House". I as an owner of a neighboring property, endorse, without reservation the continued use of the properties as the "McMillan House" Bed and Breakfast.

Sincerely,

Muriel C Fauntroy

Owner, Muriel C. Fauntroy
58 Channing Street, N. W.