Re: Application Number 16827

Dear Mr. Griffis:

The American Society for Microbiology "ASM" is located at 1752 N Street, N.W., Washington, DC. During the week of January 21, 2002, ASM became aware of the renovation project for 1750 N Street, N.W., Washington, DC, after the hearing notice was posted on the adjacent property. Immediately, ASM representatives contacted your office to obtain further information on the scope of this renovation project.

This letter shall represent a concern in the proposed renovation and rear addition referenced in the above application for 1750 N Street, N.W., Washington, DC. Our concern specifically lies with the rear addition proposed which is facing our property.

Sincerely,

Kim Shankle
