Dear Mr. Griffis:

I am writing to request written response from the Board as to its action on the Sunrise Motion to Dismiss the Appeal No. 16879 of Permits Nos. B435464 and B442149. To date, I have not received that information. I would appreciate receiving any or all of the following: a copy of the Board's action on the motion; the basis of that action; a copy of the official transcript of the meeting or notice of the availability of that transcript.

Time is of the essence. I am currently preparing for the hearing on June 18, 2002, which is less that a week away. Therefore, I request all information relating to any change in the format of my presentation for that meeting by COB Thursday, June 13, 2002. I will be away between Friday, June 14 and Monday, June 17, 2002 and need to take that information with me for my final preparation.

As our written submission for the June 18, 2002 hearing indicates, the Nebraska Avenue Neighborhood Association is addressing only issues raised by new information.

Your prompt response to this request is greatly appreciated.

Yours truly,

Page Chiapella
