Zion Baptist Church
1234 Kenilworth Ave NE
Washington D.C. 20019

Detail statement of current and proposed use.

The existing use of 1219, 44th street
The building is used as a learning center for children 6/12 years of age. It was purchased 5 years ago and has been used for this purpose since that time. Also church groups meet in the building for small meetings. The program includes helping children with home work and computer skills. Teaching them how to get along with their peer groups. They go on trips around the city to widen their world. They learn Hygiene and morals.

The Proposed use of this building is to continue the aforementioned program.

Prior to our purchasing the building it was used for residential use. .
