BZA Application 16889

Dear Ms. Kress:

In accordance with DCMR 3115.1 Advisory Neighborhood Commission 8C, held it's monthly meeting on June 5, 2002, at the National Children Center, 3400 Martin Luther King, Jr. Avenue, SE.

The Community was notified by phone and flyers 7 days prior to the meeting date. Four Commissioners constitutes a quorum, the following commissioner were present which constitutes a quorum.

Mary Cuthbert –	8C04
R. Calvin Lockridge –	8C03
Barbara Kemp –	8C05
Richard "Dick" Clark-	8C06
C. Kenneth Johnson -	8C08

Chairman Mary Cuthbert will speak on behalf of the Commission; Motion made by C. Kenneth Johnson, seconded by Richard Clark to support the special exception for additional students and staff, the vote was unanimous.

Mr. Arthur Ginsberg Executive Director of the National Children's Center explained there request for special exception to increase the number of students to 225 and staff to 100, and the space that will be used is presently being occupied by Covenant House Washington (a program for children at risk) who will be moving into their own building in November of 2002.

EXHIBIT NO.25

The National Children's Center has been a good neighbor working and supporting the community. We hope the increase of students will alleviate some of DC public school special education problems.

Advisory Neighborhood Commission 8C fully support the special exception to increase of students and staff.

Sincerely,

Mary J. Cuthbert
Chairman
