RESUME

Antonio D'Agostino AIA

ASSOCIATE VICE PRESIDENT

Mr. D'Agostino is an architect with a strong background as an architectural and urban designer as well as project manager. He has been involved in a diverse range of corporate, mixed-use and residential projects for both public and private sector clients. Mr. D'Agostino joined RTKL in 1998 and was promoted to Associate Vice President in 2000.

RTKL

PROJECT EXPERIENCE

Corporate

1801 N. Lynn Street, Project Architect, architectural design of a 360,000 SF 24-story new "smart" office building with 7-levels of structured parking and retail at street level, Rosslyn, VA

Bala Cynwyd, Project Manager, architectural design for a 175,000 SF seven story office building with potential LEED certification, retail at street level with links to adjacent shopping center, Bala Cynwyd, PA

1800 M Street, NW, Senior Project Manager, architectural design for 22,000 SF lobby coupled with the renovation of courtyard and secondary lobby for 10-story office building, Washington, DC

Residential

Dulles station Building I, Project Manager, Architectural design for a 4 story 235,000 SF Residential Building with 184 units, 8,000 SF of street-level business, 6-level above grade parking, and two courtyards with an outdoor pool. Building I is the second of five residential buildings that surround an urban green space, Herndon, VA

North Pier, Senior Project Manager, architectural design of a 350,000 SF residential project with a 90,000 SF structured parking and public open space constructed atop a pier, Jersey City, NJ

Logan Circle, Project Manager, architectural design of a high-density urban residential project consisting of 9-story, 240,000 SF building with 170 loft-style apartments and two levels of below-grade parking, Washington, DC

717 Sixth Street, NW, Project Manager, Art Deco-designed,12-story residential high-rise building with 55-units, a roof deck, and one level of underground parking, Washington, DC

Mixed Use

Pentagon Row (Phase One), Project Architect, master plan and design of 500 apartment units over 300,000 GSF of retail with structured parking, Arlington, VA

Pentagon Row (Phase Two), Project Manager, architectural design of a 17-story, 319 unit, apartment building, Arlington, VA

Master Planning

Central Place, Designer, Project Manager, master plan and design of mixed-use multi-block high-rise residential and commercial complex with street level and second level retail and four levels of underground parking, Rosslyn, VA

Hospitality

Fort Eustis Lodging Facility, Project Manager, Competition for 220 room facility for daily, weekly and long term visitors to the Army base, Ft. Eustis, VA

OTHER EXPERIENCE

Town of Bahcesehir, Project Architect, master plan and design of approximately 1,600 units for a new town, with its own commercial, institutional, government, and public spaces and gardens jurisdictions, linked to downtown Istanbul via the Orient Express, Istanbul, Turkey

Lafayette Courts, Project Architect, architectural design for the redevelopment of low-income housing converting from three high-rise apartment buildings to a row of houses with a central public square, community buildings, daycare and senior living, Baltimore, MD

Brighton Gardens Retirement Community, Staff Architect, architectural design for the development of a 7-story, urban, independent senior living facility, Chevy Chase, MD

Rockville MARC Station, Project Architect, architectural design for the re-design of a public train station including new canopy and exterior elevator, Rockville, MD

Hearthstone Mews, Project Planner, architectural design for the redevelopment of a city block, Old Town Alexandria, VA

Board of Zoning Adjustment
District of Columbia
CASE NO.16807
EXHIBIT NO.35

BZA
Case No. 16807
Exhibit No. 35

Villages at Piscataway, Staff Planner, Architectural design for a 1,100 unit residential complex designed as five linked villages, Piscataway, MD

Radford University College of Global Studies, Staff Planner, master plan for new campus with academic and dormitory buildings, Radford, VA

National Mall Master Plan, Staff Planner, urban design studying and exploring the grounds of the Smithsonian Institution, seeking to improve the presence on the National Mall and creating a cohesive urban streetscape with the other Smithsonian buildings, Washington, DC

National Foreign Affairs Training Center, Staff Architect, architectural design of a new office and training complex, Arlington, VA

EDUCATION

The Catholic University of America, Bachelor of Architecture, May 1989

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

American Institute of Architects, June 1998

AWARDS

AIA Honor Award- Urban Design, Town of Bahcesehir, Turkey,200

ASLA 1996 Awards-Honorable-Mention, Planning and Urban Design, Lafayette, Courts, Baltimore, MD

CUA Faculty Prize, Thesis of the Year, Second Place, May 1989

CUA Cardinal O'Boyle Foreign Studies Competition, 3rd Place, December 1987

PUBLICATIONS / EXHIBITS

Lafayette Courts, Architecture Magazine, August 1997

Lafayette Courts, Progressive Architecture Magazine, January 1995

Pentagon Row, National Building Museum, Reimagining the Suburbs: Smart Growth and Choices for Change, October 22, 1999 – March 26, 2000

PROFESSIONAL REGISTRATION

District of Columbia, ARC #5944

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

RTKL Start Date: June, 1998

Industry Start Date: 1986