The Palisades Citizens Association (PCA) has approximately 1,000 members, and since its founding in 1916, has been dedicated to protecting the interests and rights of residents of the Palisades neighborhood in the District of Columbia.

At our board meeting on August 14, 2002, the PCA voted in favor of the following resolution:

The PCA supports CVS's application for a three year extension on the special exception to continue using the parking lot located at 4817 U St. NW.
