Muse Architects, established in 1983, is an office with extensive experience in residential, institutional, commercial, and urban design projects. As an office of nineteen people, and with an established relationship with all related engineering consultants, Muse Architects provides full services for various scales of architectural commissions. The work of Muse Architects has received more than eighty design awards, including those from the National, Washington, Maryland and Baltimore Chapters of the AIA, the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and the Masonry Institute. The work of Muse Architects has also been reviewed in more than one hundred and twenty five architectural books and periodicals, including Architectural Digest, House Beautiful, and The American Home, Design for Living.

Stephen Muse, FAIA received a Bachelor of Architecture from the University of Maryland and a Master of Architecture in Urban Design from Cornell University. Prior to establishing his private practice, Stephen practiced in the office of Hartman-Cox Architects in Washington, DC. He has also been a member of the design faculty of the Departments of Architecture at the University of Maryland, Cornell University and Harvard University, and has been a member of the Washington Chapter/AIA Board of Directors, and the U. S. Commission of Fine Arts, Georgetown Historic District Board. In 1996, Mr. Muse was elevated to Fellowship in the American Institute of Architects, because of his notable design contributions to the profession of architecture.
