Washington, D.C. 20001

Dear Chairman Griffis:

I am writing to express my support of the National Association of Realtors on their decision to build a national headquarters on Capitol Hill in Washington, DC.

This new building will benefit not only your 850,000 members, but also the Capitol Hill community. I understand that the $45 million in construction and acquisition capital will benefit several Washington, DC businesses. Moreover, once complete, the building will offer numerous environmentally friendly features, and serve as a model for future construction.

This building will make a strong statement to both Members of Congress and the local community. This permanent fixture will demonstrate your commitment to the political process and the city as a whole.

Sincerely,

GARY G. MILLER
Member of Congress
