D.C. public school fares

School token or ticket in the District of Columbia only for eligible students. Rail-to-bus transfers are free for eligible D.C. school students within the District of Columbia and at Silver Spring and Capitol Heights stations.

Metrorail fares

Regular Fare $1.10 base (0-3 miles), maximum fare $3.25
Reduced Fare $1.10 (0-7 miles), $1.60 (7-10 miles), $2.10 (10+miles)

Regular fares are charged 5:30-9:30 a.m. and 3 to 7 p.m. weekdays.

Reduced fares are charged at all other times.

For fares between stations, go to Metrorail station page and click on the station where you are starting your trip.

Metrorail senior and disabled fares

Senior citizens and people with disabilities who have Metro ID (Metro Senior ID and Metro Disabled ID information) or a photo ID with their birth date may buy specially encoded $3 and $10 farecards, or SmarTrip cards, that provide reduced fares. These farecards are available at Metro sales offices and various retail outlets. The Senior SmarTrip card is also available online.

Metro hours of operation

- Metro operates seven days a week.
- Rail stations open at 5:30 a.m. on weekdays and at 8 a.m. on weekends.
- Metrorail closes at midnight (2 a.m. on Friday and Saturdays) except for special events such as the annual 4th of July fireworks display when hours are extended.

- When traveling late at night, be sure to check the scheduled departure time for the last train. At many stations, the last train departs before midnight (2 a.m. on Friday and Saturdays) so it is important that you allow enough time to enter the system and board the train. Last train departure times are posted at each station kiosk.
