CASE NO.16944
EXHIBIT NO.51

Please read when casting my absentee vote on Georgetown Day High School (#16944):

I continue to be frustrated with Applicants who ignore the conditions in Zoning Orders, because those conditions are the only means by which communities are protected from adverse impacts. In fact, in this case, if the School had enforced the conditions of the existing order related to parking, they would not have the extent of ill will among immediate neighbors that currently exists.

Despite my frustration, I believe that compliance, not punishment, is the most important goal, and we have an Applicant before us who appears to sincerely desire to be in compliance with our order, albeit with some modifications. I support the special exception request and thank the ANC for effectively brokering this positive outcome.
