

BZA
Case No. 16974
Exhibit No. 76

WASHINGTONLife

$3.95

VOLUME 10, NUMBER 6 | MARCH 2001

H.R.H., The Earl of Wessex (Prince Edward), and H.R.H., The Countess of Wessex at the Library of Congress to commemorate the Congressional Award

photo by Frances L. Jones & Associates

The "A" List

Washington Weddings

Luxury Real Estate

...and parties parties parties!

WASHINGTON WEDDINGS

GLICKMAN – JACOBSEN WEDDING

Toni Glickman and Simon Jacobsen were married on May 6, 2000 in the West Garden of Tudor Place. The bride is the daughter of Sharon Glickman. The groom is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Hugh Newell Jacobsen. The bride was given away by her uncles Norman Glickman, and former Secretary of Agriculture Dan Glickman.

The ceremony, led by Federal Judge Paul Friedman, was attended by two hundred and sixty guests from around the country as well as Europe. Some of the guests included NBC's Chip Reid, Congressman Ed Markey (D-Mass), Admiral Susan Blumenthal, Max & Heidi Barry, Castlerock Entertainment President Liz Glotzer Jacobsen, and Jon Glickman, President of Spyglass Films.

Immediately following the ceremony, the 21 piece swing band "Doc Scantlin and His Imperial Palm Orchestra" played throughout the evening while guests enjoyed a candlelight dinner and dancing.

The couple honeymooned in the South of France, and currently resides in Washington, D.C.

Above: Simon Jacobsen and Toni Glickman; Right: The Groom was escorted from his residence to Tudor Place by 25 Scottish bagpipers and 35 "groomguards."

Tudor Place Foundation, Inc.

April 14, 2000

Notice to our near neighbors from Tudor Place Foundation of the following four events to be held on our grounds in May:

- Thursday evening, May 4th, Tudor Place will host an opening reception for our exhibition Blooming Miracles: The Shaping of the Gardens of Tudor Place
- Saturday evening, May 6th, there will be a wedding ceremony and reception for approximately 200 guests
- Saturday evening, May 20th, there will be a wedding reception for approximately 200 guests
- Wednesday evening, May 24th, we will be holding our eighth annual Spring Garden Party for approximately 400 guests

Tudor Place's duty officer for each of the evenings mentioned above will be Sarah Stifel. She can be contacted at cell phone # 202-607-3927 during these events.

All parties with 75 guests or more will have police officers monitoring traffic control, valet parking will be provided, and security guards will be stationed on the property.

Monday, May 1st, a tent will start going up on our lower South Lawn. Take down of the tent will begin on Monday, May 29th.

As of today these are the only large functions planned on Tudor Place property until October.

We appreciate your support and hope that these events will cause little or no disturbance to any of you.

Thank you