Dear,

BZA

I know I am only 9 years old and my vote probably won't count but my parents drop me off at school at 8:30 and then I don't see them until 6:00 or 6:30, and I don't know any zoning rules or anything like that but I do know it would rock if I could come home at quarter to four and be able to give my mom a hug and kiss and say hi. Also this might not count either but I know one thing and that is the only reason my mother wants to work at home is because she wants to be able to give me a hug and kiss and be there when I need her help for homework or something like that.

From,

D. Block
