BANNUM, INC.'S REPLY TO DCRA'S OPPOSTION TO BANNUM'S MOTIONS FOR EXTENSION OF TIME AND FOR CONTINUANCE

COMES NOW, BANNUM, INC. (hereinafter "Bannum") and files this Reply to DCRA's Opposition to Bannum's Motions for Extension of Time and for Continuance and states as follows:

Despite DCRA's Opposition to Bannum's Motions for Extension of Time and Continuance, at the June 17, 2003 hearing Bannum specifically stated that it could submit a brief by June 30, 2003 assuming it had received a copy of the transcript by that time (see pg. 327 of June 17, 2003 transcript). The reason why the transcripts were needed was so that Bannum could cite to specific testimony of Appellant's witnesses which either failed to support Appellant's case, or which actually supported DCRA's issuance of the building permit to Bannum. Obviously, without the transcript, this could not be done. The testimony shows that Appellant not only failed to prove its case, but it actually went one step further and submitted evidence to support DCRA's issuance of a building permit to Bannum. Reviewing the transcript is very tedious and time-consuming work, but in the end, it may actually save the Board and DCRA more unnecessary time, effort, expense, and publicity by disposing of this case without the need for further proceedings.
