Comparison of Academy of the Holy Cross/ Dunbarton College for Women With Howard University La

Academy of the Holy Cross/Dunbarton College for Women
2935 Upton Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008

19 Acres

1910: First Year of Operation Academy of the Holy Cross
21 Sisters
20 Boarding Students
No Numbers Available for Day Students
TOTAL: 41 Plus Unknown Number Day Students

1934-1935: First Year Dunbarton College Joins AOHC Campus
Holy Cross: 22 Sisters, 56 Boarders, 135 Students
Dunbarton: 11 Sisters/Lay, 8 Boarders, 44 Students
TOTAL: 276 Sisters/Lay Teachers and Students

1959: Final Year for AOHC Before Move to Maryland
Holy Cross: 11 Sisters/Priests/Lay, 86 Seniors
Dunbarton: 56 Sisters/Lay Teachers, 344 Students
TOTAL: 497 Sisters/Priests/Lay Teachers/Students

1973: Final Year of Dunbarton College Operation
11 Sisters, 15 Full Time and 20 Part Time Lay Teachers
155 Students
TOTAL: 201 Sisters/Full & Part Time Lay Teachers/Students,

1974: First Yr Howard Law opens on former AOHC/Dunbarton site
Campus plan states that Howard University Law School has 450 Students (3 Years Law School)
32 full time Faculty
50 full time Staff members
TOTAL: 532 Full/Part Time Faculty/Staff and Students

Note: While the 1959 zenith of 497 for Academy of the Holy Cross does not seem disimilar to Howard Law School's current population tion of 532, the largest difference is the fact that 100% of Howard's community commutes in and out on a daily basis and the 2001 heavy relaince on automobiles compared with 1959's predominant use of buses/streetcars/walking.

1997: Same population Numbers

No limit on number of events per month. Must be associated with School of Law

In 1996-1997, Howard hosted more than 300 day and evening events, many on weekends

Case No. 17022
Exhibit No. 151

Board of Zoning Adjustment
District of Columbia
CASE NO. 17022
EXHIBIT NO. 151

Carnegie Institution
2801 Upton Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008

4.5 Acres

1906-07: Date of first occupation
8 Scientists plus an unspecified number of staff

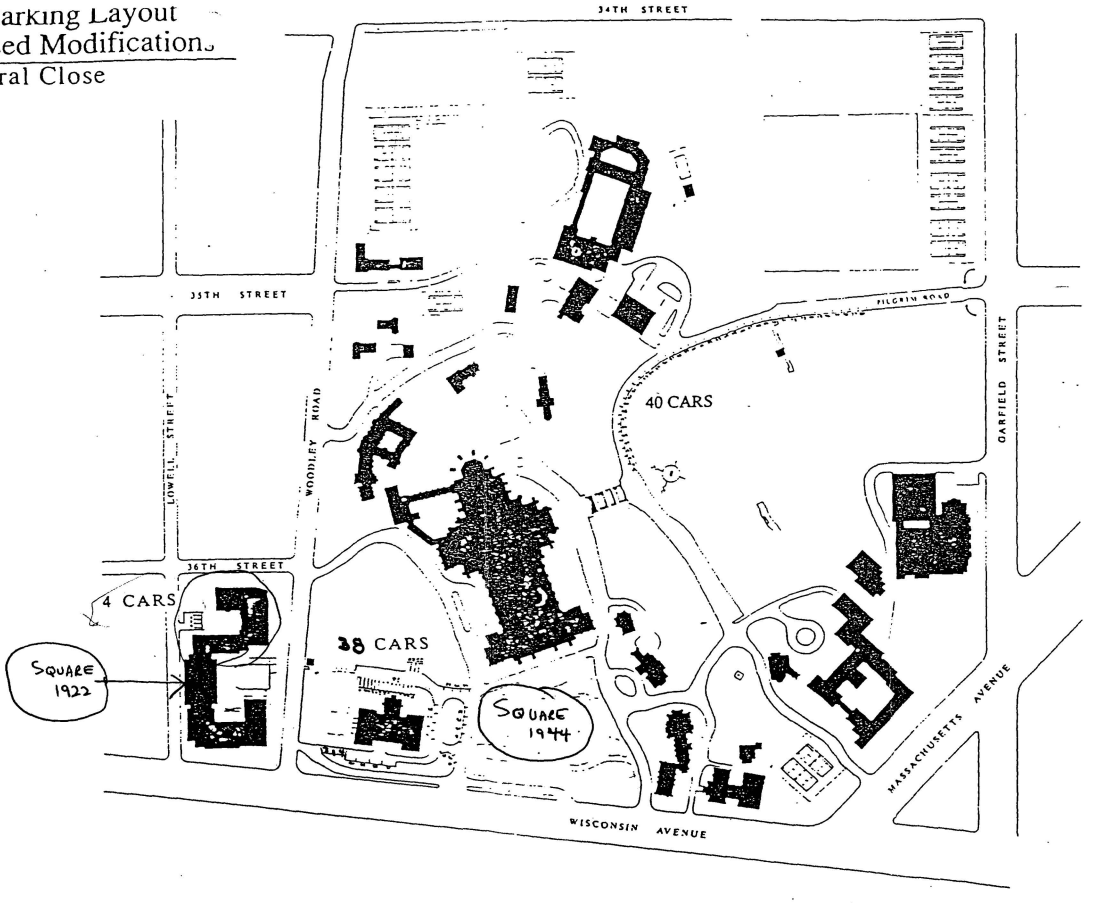

1973: Final Year of Occupation
17 Permanent Scientists
16 Post-doctoral Research Fellows
Approximately 15 Support Staff
TOTAL: 48-50 Persons

1995: Levine School of Music opens on former Carnegie Institution site.
Hours of Operation: 9:00 A.M. - 9:00 P.M
Total Number of Students: 1,500
Maximum Daily Density Monday-Friday: 800 people per day
Maximum Saturday Density: 40 people - hours from 1:00 -4:00 p.m.
Maximum Sunday Density: 150 People in the Recital Hall, and 350 People in the (currently unbuilt) Performance Theatre

Maximum Number permitted on site at one time: 150 people except during performances or during Annual Fundraiser for 350 persons

Performances may end at 10:30 p.m.
12 Sundays

Parking Layout
Proposed Modifications
Cathedral Close

BOWIE + GRIDLEY ARCHITECTS

P-3

B