James W. Greenwell, AIA

Mr. Greenwell received a Bachelor of Architecture at the University of Kentucky in Lexington, Kentucky in 1971. From 1971-1975, Mr. Greenwell spent time in London, UK at Charles B Pearson, Son and Partners and Raymond Stern Associates and in Tel Aviv, Israel at Adam Eyal Architect and Planner, Ltd. Since 1975, Mr. Greenwell has contributed to various award-winning firms throughout Washington, DC; including, Swaney Kerns Architects/DBI, Skidmore, Owings & Merrill, J.W. Greenwell and Associates, Greenwell Goetz Architects PC, and James W. Greenwell, AIA, PLLC.

Architecture designed by Mr. Greenwell has received many distinguished awards including the 1999 AIA Merit Award for the design of Greenwell Goetz Architects Design Studio, 2000 AIA National Honor Award, and the 2000 International Interior Design Association Bronze Award, Mid-Atlantic Chapter. Mr. Greenwell's many accomplishments also include several published articles featured in Interiors, Interior Design, The National Law Journal and Corporate Design Magazine.

Recent Relevant Projects Include:

Jubilee Housing, Washington, DC
Project Director for this renovation project of 236 units of affordable rental housing in the heart of Adams Morgan in northwest Washington, DC. The project will be completed in two phases over the next two years and encompasses seven residential buildings within a six-block area. The buildings range in size from 12 units to 60 units. The design will also include a 7,500-square-foot addition along the rear of two of the buildings to house support services for Good Shepherd Ministries.

Mount Vernon Walk, Washington, DC
Architect-of-Record for a 900,000 sf mixed-use project at the former Wax Museum site. The design included retail space, 600 residential units and a performing arts theatre. The plan also featured "Artists Walk," a gallery and live-work units for artists.

ISG International, Cambridge, MD
This project includes a 30,000 sf base building addition and interior design.

The following projects were completed while a Principal of Greenwell Goetz Architects:

Nixon Peabody, LLP, Washington, DC
80,000 sf, award-sinning law office
2002 AIA Award of Excellence in Interior Design
2001 AIA Merit Award, Washington, DC Chapter
2001 Washington Building Congress Award

Ronald Reagan Building, International Trade Center, Washington, DC
360,000 sf interiors and conference space

BZA
Case No. 17076
Exhibit No. 32

Board of Zoning Adjustment
District of Columbia
CASE NO. 17076
EXHIBIT NO. 32

Wilkinson Barker Knauer & Quinn, Washington, DC
35,000 sf law office

HCR Manor Care Health Systems, Inc., Gaithersburg, MD
340,000 SF headquarters facility

AAAS, Washington, DC
210,000 sf headquarters facility

Watson Wyatt Worldwide, Washington, DC
225,000 sf headquarters facility

American Gas Association, Washington, DC
35,000 sf headquarters

The Associations at 1307 New York Avenue
Washington, DC
105,000 sf headquarters, Inform Magazine Best Institutional Design Award 1999

Cox Washington Broadcasting and Newspapers, Washington, DC
25,000 sf, 2000 International Interior Design Association Bronze Award, Mid-Atlantic Chapter Magazine

Sherman Meehan & Curtin, Washington, DC
18,500 sf law office

Steelcase, Worklife Center, Washington, DC
3,500 sf, 1998 Innovation Award, Building Interiors

Mr. Greenwell is a member of the American Institute of Architects, International Interior Design Association, District of Columbia Building Industry Association and the Washington Board of Trade. Mr. Greenwell was the Board President of Jubilee Housing/Jubilee Support Alliance for 2001 and is a Board Member of Franklin Square Association. He is also certified by the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB).