

DON A HAWKINS ARCHITECT

1220 NORTH VERNON STREET
ARLINGTON VIRGINIA 22201

TELEPHONE 703 558 0111
FACSIMILE 703 558 0150
DONHAWKINS@COMCAST.NET

EMPLOYMENT

- 1988-Present Independent architectural practice
- 2002-Present National Building Museum: Guest Curator
- 2001 Parks and History Association: Chief Executive Officer
- 1993 Catholic University of America: Architectural Design Studio Instructor
- 1971-1988 Don A. Hawkins & Associates: Principal
- 1985 Catholic University of America: Architectural Design Studio Instructor
- 1984 “ “ “ “ “ “ “
- 1981-1982 Ordway Associates: Development Principal
- 1980-1981 Fulton Associates: Development Principal
- 1967-1971 Independent Architectural Practice
- 1964-1967 Hugh Newell Jacobsen, Architect, Washington, D.C.: Designer/Draftsman

BZA
Case No. 17109
Exhibit No. 45

Board of Zoning Adjustment
District of Columbia
CASE NO. 17109
EXHIBIT NO. 45

EDUCATION

- 1974-1977 Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.: Master of Architecture & Urban Design
- 1959-1963 Carnegie Institute of Technology, School of Fine Arts, Architecture Department: Undergraduate architectural coursework
- 1957-1959 Architectural Association School, London, England: Undergraduate architectural coursework
- 1956-1957 Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.: Undergraduate architectural coursework

AWARDS

- 1981 Latrobe Chapter, Society of Architectural Historians
- AIA/Washingtonian McEvoy Residence
- AIA/Washingtonian Dickler Residence
- 1956 National Association of Home Builders Student Model Competition:
3rd Prize

AFFILIATIONS

- 1986-Present Committee of 100 on the Federal City:
Citizen group advocating for good planning in Washington. Founded 1923
Trustee, 3 years; Chair, Historic Preservation Subcommittee, 3 years
- 1980-Present Historical Society of Washington, D.C.:
Founded in 1894 as the Columbia Historical Society to preserve and

Board of Governors, 11 years; Editorial Board, 17 years
- 1993-1998 Parks and History Association, Washington, D.C.:
A nonprofit corporation associated with the National Park Service.
charged with the design, construction, and operation of bookstores in parks
throughout the National Capital Region.
Director, 5 years; Chairman, 2 years
- 1995-Present Lambda Alpha, Washington, D.C.:
Land Economics Honor Society.
Member
- 1985-1990 The L'Enfant Forum:
An association of scholars formed to edit and publish L'Enfant's works
Secretary
- 1957-Present The Architectural Association, London, U.K.:
Professional association of architects which founded its school in 1859
Member
- 1973-Present Society of Architectural Historians, Washington., D.C.: Member
- 1973-Present Society of Architectural Historians of Great Britain
- 1973-1992 American Institute of Architects, Washington, D.C.: Member
- 2001-Present DC Preservation League, Washington, D.C.: Member

NON-ARCHITECTURAL PUBLICATIONS

- 2001 "Conjectural Reconstruction of William Thornton's Original Plan, 1793" Drawing in, History of the United States Capitol. William C Allen, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C.
- 2000 "Map Showing Ownership of the Land Designated as the Federal City in 1791" in Washington Album: a Pictorial History of the Nation's Capital, Bob Levey and Jane Freundel Levey, Washington Post Books, Wash. D.C.
- "Washington in 1800: A New Map" in Coming into the City, Washington History Magazine, v.12, n.1
- 1999 "Seven Maps of the Potomac River" in Along the Potomac, Philip Woodworth Ogilvie, Arcadia Publishing, Charleston, S.C.
- "Original Topography of the Federal City" and "Map showing Four Distinct Geographic Areas" in George Washington, Architect, Alan Greenberg, New Architecture Group, Ltd., London, U.K.
- "Tivoli Gardens on the Mall" Article in Washington History, v.11, n. 1
- 1997 "National Airport Comes Home" Article in Washington History, v.9, n.2
- "A Dupont Circle Opera House" Article in Washington History, v.9, n.1
- 1996 "The Papers of William Thornton", Review of the book by C.M. Harris in Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians, Philadelphia, Pa.
- 1995 A Reconstruction of William Thornton's Design for the Capitol: Principal Floor Plan and West Elevation, Drawings in Temple of Liberty, Pamela Scott, Oxford University Press, London
- 1995 "Ghosts of L'Enfant's Lafayette Square", Article in Washington History, v.7, n.2
- 1995 "National Guard Armory on the Mall", Article in Washington History, v.7, n.1
- 1993 "Unbuilt Washington", Article in Washington History, v.5, n.2
- 1993 "The Landscape of the Federal City" 2 maps in Washington, D.C. Interdisciplinary approaches, Falke and Honnighausen, ed. A Francke Verlag, Tuebingen, Germany

EXHIBITIONS AND EXHIBITED WORKS

- 2002-2004 “Washington: Symbol and City”, Curator of permanent exhibition to open October, 2004, National Building Museum
- 1995 “A Reconstruction of William Thornton’s Premiated Design”, Drawings in Temple of Liberty: the U.S. Capitol 1791-1863, exhibition at the Library of Congress
- “A Reconstruction of William Thornton’s Premiated Design” Drawings in the U.S. Capitol Exhibition on the Crypt of the Capitol
- 1992 Visions and Revisions: Unbuilt Precedents, Curator with Donald Beekman Myer, Washington Chapter AIA, National Building Museum
- 1991 “Thomas Jefferson’s Seat of Government” Map, in L’Enfant’s Plan: Visions of Washington, I. Miller, Curator, Sumner School, Washington, D.C.
- Washington, D.C.: 200 Years Through Architecture*, Design and History Consultant, H. Lesser, Curator, at International Monetary Fund
- “The Site of the Federal City” and “The Site of the Federal City with the L’Enfant Plan”, 2 Maps, in City of Magnificent Distances: the Nation’s Capital, A. Cosentino and R. Stephenson, Curators, Library of Congress
- 1990 “The L’Enfant Plan in its Setting”, Map, in Klar und Lichtvoll Wie Eine Regel: Planstadt der Neuzeit, V. Himmelein, Curator, Badischen Landesmuseum Karlsruhe, Germany
- 1983 Fifty Years of the Historic American Buildings Survey, Curator of exhibition of selected photographs from the collection in the Library of Congress, NMAA
- 1982 As part of the celebration of the AIA’s 125th anniversary, I was on display as a real, live Specimen Architect in a second floor gallery of the Octagon for ten weeks with a drawing board and a display of my architectural work.

UNPUBLISHED MAPS AND STUDIES

- 1996 Strivers' Section Historic District, DC State Historic Preservation Office (DCSHPO), Lampl & Williams
- 1994 Northern Shaw Historic District. DCHPO, Traceries
- 1993 The Leveling of Washington Streets by the Territorial Government
- 1992 Shaw Historic District DCSHPO, Traceries
- 1990 Greater Logan Circle Historic District, DCSHPO, Traceries
- 1989 L'Enfant's Plan of Federal Hall
- 1989 Blagden Alley and Naylor Court Historic District from 1857 to 1989 in Ten Maps, DCSHPO, Traceries
- 1988 The Development of the Sheridan-Kalorama Historic District from 1800 to 1987 in 8 Maps, DCSHPO, Traceries
- 1986 Eighteenth Century Roads in the Washington Area
- 1985 Thomas Jefferson's Design for the Seat of Government
- 1984 The Potomac River at Washington, 1791-1984 for Smithsonian Associates
- 1981 William Thornton's Lost Design of the U.S. Capitol: A Study and Reconstruction. Awarded the First Prize for Architectural History Writing by The Latrobe Chapter, SAH
- 1977 Surviving Pre-Victorian Vernacular Buildings in Washington: a Photographic Inventory
- 1975 Three Early Commercial Buildings in Washington: A History and Drawings for HABS