Subject: BZA Application No. 17150

At a publicly announced meeting of Advisory Neighborhood Commission 4C. Held at the Regional Operations Command Center North 801 Shepherd Street NW. On the eighth of June 2004 at 700pm. With seven Commissioners in attendance. Six constitutes a quorum. A motion was introduced by Commissioner David Jannerone 4C06, that the 4C Commission support the Community's opposition to the Applicants request for Zoning relief in case # 17150. The Commissions vote was six in support of the Community's opposition with one Commissioner abstaining. The Commission's majority vote was in opposition to the applicants request. In voting six in opposition with one abstention. The 4C Commission's was swayed by The Office of Planning's recommendation of denial. However the Commission felt that if the applicant and their architects can address the concerns of the community and the issues raised by the office of planning. The 4C Commission will willingly revisit this matter. In matters before the BZA Board regarding case # 17150 the 4C Commission will be represented by the 4C chair and affected SMD Commissioner Timothy A Jones.
