

This detail of Square 194 is from a D. C. real estate atlas published in 1892, two years after construction of the house at 1517 P Street (lot #5). It plainly shows the builder's intent to provide a comfortable space between that house and its neighbor at 1519 (lot #6), which had been built 11 years earlier.

Real Estate Plat-Book of Washington, District of Columbia, vol. I (Philadelphia, 1892).

